

Reading Review

Quarter 1

Standards: Asking/Answering Questions
Recounting Stories
Beginning, Middle, Endings

Katie's Secret

Katie had a career as a zookeeper. She worked at the zoo with the animals. Katie worked with other workers at the zoo, too. Katie just learned a new secret that some workers were keeping. They had just found out they'll be receiving an infant hippopotamus this summer. Katie's new job as a zookeeper was to help the zoo set up the hippo's new habitat. She was drawing a plan for the hippo's pond and feeding area. Katie could not wait until the summer so that she could work with the hippo daily!

What happened at the beginning of the story?

1. Katie worked at the zoo.
2. Katie drew a plan for the hippo's pond.
3. Katie found out an infant hippo was coming.

What happened after Katie found out the infant hippo was coming to the zoo?

1. Katie helped to set up the hippo's habitat.
2. She worked with the animals.
3. Katie couldn't wait until summer.

What happened at the end of the story?

1. Katie worked at the zoo.
2. Katie drew a plan for the hippo's pond.
3. Katie found out an infant hippo was coming.

Who is the main character?

1. zoo keeper
2. hippopotamus
3. Katie

Where does the story take place?

1. jungle
2. zoo
3. woods

Jill and Bill's Hats

Jill and Bill's mom told them not to wear hats on a windy day, but they wore their hats to the woods, even though it was windy. Their hats flew away in the wind! They knew they were in trouble. Jill and Bill went running after their hats. They looked in the woods. They looked by the lake. They couldn't find their hats. Jill and Bill gave up and walked home. They had to tell their mom that their hats flew off. They knew they would listen to the rules next time.

Where does the story take place?

1. In the woods
2. Jill and Bill's house
3. School playground

What happened in the beginning?

1. They couldn't find their hats.
2. They wore their hats to the woods.
3. They told their mom their hats flew off.

What is Jill and Bill's problem in the passage?

1. Their hats flew off in the wind.
2. They played in the woods.
3. They looked by the lake.

What happened in the middle of the story?

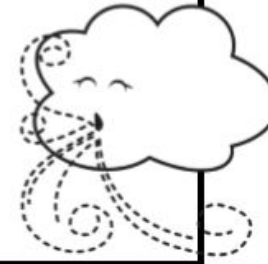

1. They looked by the lake.
2. They wore their hats to the woods.
3. They had to tell their mom their hats flew off.

What happened after they looked in the woods?

1. They went home.
2. They looked by the lake.
3. Their hats flew away in the wind.

Jill and Bill's Hats

Jill and Bill's mom told them not to wear hats on a windy day, but they wore their hats to the woods, even though it was windy. Their hats flew away in the wind! They knew they were in trouble. Jill and Bill went running after their hats. They looked in the woods. They looked by the lake. They couldn't find their hats. Jill and Bill gave up and walked home. They had to tell their mom that their hats flew off. They knew they would listen to the rules next time.

Did Jill and Bill listen to their mother at the beginning of the story?

Did Jill and Bill learn to listen to their mother at the end of the story?

Tell what event in the story changed Jill and Bill's feelings about listening to their mother?

*Discuss how to write the explanation!

©Tobin, March 2015

Which events are in the correct order of the story?

1. Jill and Bill went running after their hats. Jill and Bill gave up and walked home. Jill and Bill's mom told them not to wear hats.
2. Jill and Bill's mom told them not to wear hats. Jill and Bill went running after their hats. Jill and Bill gave up and walked home.
3. Jill and Bill gave up and walked home. Jill and Bill's mom told them not to wear hats. Jill and Bill went running after their hats.